THE DEMOCRACY.

A Mass Meeting in the Fifteenth Ward. A large and enthusiastic meeting of citizens was held under the auspices of the Democratic Campaign Club of the Fifteenth ward, at Broad and Coates street, last evening. Colonel Edmund Randall was chosen Chairman, and the other officers were appointed as follows:-Vice-Presidents-Charles Hensil, John Lawrence, Samuel E. Bright, James Van Osten, and John Murray. Secretaries—Benjamin Harper, Joseph Bond, Samuel W. Randall, and Lewis Pigeon. The first speaker was Colonel Randall. He congratulated those present on the improved condition of the Democratic party, which, he said, was not only a unit in organization but a unit in principle. He referred to the disorderly conventions of the radical party, and said that the Democratic conventions were carried on in harmony and with a spirit of wisdom. The candidates placed before the people were gentlemen of integrity and standing in he community, and in the make-up of the ticket the soldier had not been forgotten. The party in the Fourth district saw fit not to make a nomi-nation for Congress, but Judge Kelley, the radical nominee, was about to meet a foeman worthy of his steel in the person of William B. Thomas who has been identified with the interests of this city and State for a number of years. He is presented to the people as a fit person to represent the district in Congress. Colonel Randall referred to the course of Judge Kelley in Congress, and denounced his actions and measures. Colonel Randall's remarks were received with great applause.

General Thomas said that he was present by invitation of the young Democracy of the Fif-teenth ward, and he was glad of the opportunity to address such a class of citizens. He would wait to see if the Republican party extended to him a similar invitation. He claimed the right to address both parties, as he was an independent candidate before the people for Congress from the Fourth district. He felt certain that he occupied as high a position as any other citizen in this community, and he had no doubt that voters considered it a high compliment to be asked to vote for a man who has not been nominated by any clique or party. The speaker referred to the contest in the Se-cond district, and said that the citizens there were in a great predicament-they were waiting for Covode or Hill to say who they should vote for. General Thomas denounced such party feeling, and deplored the present condition of the free voters in that section of the city. He only hoped that an independent candidate was in the field there, for the sake of the dignified voters. He (the speaker) stood be fore the people in an imposing attitude. He appeared without the endorsement of any nominating convention, and he occupied an independent position, because the party with which he had labored for thirty-five years, the party-of principle, and which was above corruption, had fallen into corruption and the people were forced to look in another direction. That party, said Mr. Thomas, must be purified. The Republican papers except the Press, the editor of which has the party too closely drawn around his neck, have for a long time past been denouncing the leaders of the party-the Legislature of the State, who are the exponents of the party. They have denounced that body as most corrupt of any in the country. If the voters of this district or any other do not want to be identified with the Legislature of the past two years, they must seek redress by simply acting the part of independent men. Speaking of Judge Kelley, General Thomas said hat he never did anything for the interests of his constituents, and he was surprised to find him a candidate, as he distinctly said in a pub-Ished letter that he would not accept the nomition if he was to be pestered with applicants for positions. He, General Thomas, was not an orator, nor a constant lecturer for pay, but a aboring man in his own establishment. As to the assertion that Judge Kelley was becoming poor by serving the people, he could not understand it. When he was a judge he received only $2500 a year, but now as a Congressman he received $5000 for only about six months' work. How much he received outside he could not say. The speaker thought him a fit subject for the care of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals. General Thomas spoke for at least an bour. He denied the assertion that he was a free-trader, and sald that he was opposed to coolie labor. He was also opposed to heavy taxation, and believed in the creation of a sinking fund and the payment of the public debt from year to year, so that taxation might not be The marks of General Thomas were well re-celved. In a few well-timed remarks Samuel W. Randall, Esq., closed the meeting.

THE WAR. LAST NIGHT'S DESPATCHES.

PARIS SURROUNDED-RAILBOADS AND TELEGRAPH LINES CUT-SEDAN PLACED IN A STATE OF SIEGE-REPORTED ESCAPE OF BAZAINE'S FORCES FROM METZ.

Thiers is said to have had a long interview with the members of the Orleans family here, and it is said that he delivered to the Duke d'Aumale an important private letter from General Trochu.

It is said the British government has suspended all its contracts for building turret ships.

The Electeur Libre, of Paris, says that negotiations with the object of obtaining peace, have been going on between Jules Favre and Minister Metternich, in Paris, and Minister Bancroft, at Berlin, but have failed.

but have failed.

The King of Prussia rejects American mediation, and Mr. Bancroft replies that he can only remain a spectator of the conflict. Mr. Washburne, in communicating Mr. Bancroft's dispatch to the Minister of Foreign Affairs, adds that he could only record his protest against this impious war.

His Holiness the Pope has received a letter from King Victor Emanuel, in which the latter explains the course he has lately taken. Any delay on his part, he says, would have occasioned the proclamation of the republic in every Italian city, and his army would not have fought the republic, which would have been futal to the Papacy. As it is, republicanism is so rampant that it may prove irrepressible.

The Prussians apprehend the approach of Bazaine's army, which is reported to have escaped from Metz, and is even said to have reached Carignan."

LONDON, Sept. 15.—[Special to the New York World — The democratic demonstration on Monday next will be the most formidable ever held in London. The programme is full of grand processions. Hackney, Clerkenwell, Islington and all sections will be represented. Englishmen will march in a body to join the Italian and French republicans at Trafalgar Square, and all will then proceed to the official residence of Mr. Gladstone, and demand a recognition of the Republic of France. Steeches will be delivered at varous places.

Times. The announcement that Prussia dictated the terms on which Italy enters Rome creates dismay. It is asked whose turn come next?

Mail communication with Paris has been stopped, but the telegraph is still working, the lines being under ground for fifteen miles from the city.

That M. Thiers' mission to England is a failure seems to be certain. Prussla will only treat with the old Senate and Corps Legislatif and the Empress, and this means war to the death, for the provisional government will, sooner than ablicate, when Units and the Landau of the contractions of the contraction of th

The occupation of Rome creates even more interest here than Paris. The Protestant sentiment in England is jubilant.

London, Sept. 15.—ispecial to New York Tribune. —A correspondent telegraphs from Esch, near Luxemburg, to day, as follows:

There has been no lighting at Metz since September 2, except two hours' bombardment on the 13th. German officers say that the French reply is week. The German forces have been contracted and have closed in much nearer the walls during the past week, chiefly on the east and south sides. Some now remain near Briey.

week, thiely on the east and south sides. Some now remain near Briey.

Picket firing, which was formerly discouraged by the German commander, is now encouraged, so as to prevent comradeship between the pickets. The French are anxious to approach the Prussians in a friendly manuar to get victuals and news, and it is reported from French sources that the garrison must soon starve.

Great destitution exists among the peasantry. No grain is left, and even the German wounded have but the poorest black bread. In the rayaged districts help for the starving villagers will be needed soon. An official appeal is being prepared for publication in England and America. PARIS, Sept. 15.
The Gaulois has reason to predict happy results from the peace negotiations now pending.

The French troops which recently crossed the Rhine into Baden territory will probably remain and operate on German soil. Reinforcements have gone to them. Trochu, in his order of the day to the National Guard, says the result of the review is very gratifying. He feels assured that the defence of the city will be admirably maintained. Paris is ready to sacrifice all in order to give time to France to organize for irresistible defence. Last night the Parisians were awakened by a tremendous cannonading all along the ramparts. It was supposed that an attack had been made, and there was some excitement, which, however, was allayed when the announcement was made that the gun-

At Nogentsur-Seine uhlans appeared, but retreated, it being evident that the people intended to fight them. It is reported that many of the large siege guns of the Prussians are deeply imbedded in the mud of the canal de la Marne. The Germans attempted to transport their guns by this canal, and the French suddenly let the water out of it. It is said this will delay the siege considerably. The forts at Lyons are completed, and many troops are reaching there. The guns are all in position. Advices received from all parts of France say that large sums of money are being subscribed for the national defence, and large forces are being raised and equipped in all the departments. PARIS, Sept. 15.—[Special to the New York Herald.]—The Prussians are advancing in immense force, and to-morrow the capital will be completely isolated. All the railways have been cut, with the exception of the lines running west from the forest of Montmorency. The forest of Bondy is now burning, and other forests will be destroyed tomorrow. The gas connections will not be cut for a few days. Trochu has published a proclamation to the troops. Neuilly is full of supplies and food. The gates of Paris will be closed to-morrow. There are now over 6,000,000 pounds of powder in this city. Seventeen bridges of the Seine have been destroyed. No French fortress has yet been taken.

Paris, Sept. 12.—[Special to the New York Sun.]—
The news of the American offer of mediation has been received with great gratitude, but General Cluseret advised the people last night, at Bellville, to refuse mediation, and fight. He said if the French Republic conquers alone the freedom of the soil, it will not only be a consolidation forever of republican institutions in France, but all over the world. Death or victory! Even in the bourgeoise the same feeling prevails, and strange to say the only weak elements are officers coming in from McMahon's army, who having been cowards or themselves betrayed and routed, been cowards or themselves betrayed and routed, say to the people, "you cannot succeed where we failed." Some officers of the Garde Mobile, wealthy "petits creves" of the Emperor, are in the same spirit, but the people, the real people, are unanimously in the highest spirits, and will certainly fight, and ten times better than the army. The amount of material and men accumulated here is really frightful. Certainly 500,000 men are now under a roughly stress these General Chusters has been manned. under arms here. Paris, Sept. 15.—[Special to the New York Tribune.]—The Gaulois affirms that the British government has sent another letter to the King of Prussia demanding peace, and asking upon what conditions Prussia would sign and where they could have peace concluded, and also informing him that the basis that would be agreed upon by the neutral powers would be the integrity of French territory. The Director of the Conservatory takes this opnor.

The Director of the Conservatory takes this oppor-tunity to express his sincere gratification at the success which has attended his efforts to establish this Institution in Philadelphia on a permanent basis and with the prospect of continued prosperity.

He would likewise declare his gratitude to the many kind friends among the students and eisewhere, whose interest in the cause of thorough instruction in the art and science of music has assisted so materially in bringing the Conservatory to its present state of usefulness.

He can only promise in return that his devotion to the object of raising the institution under his care to a high place among the great Music Schools of the world shall be—as it has been—the controlling influence at the Conservatory.

FURNITURE, ETC.

HOVER'S

Celebrated Patent Sofa Bedstead Is now being made and sold in large numbers both him France and England. Can be had only at the manufactory. This piece of furniture is in the form of a handsome PARLOR SOFA, yet in one minute, without unacrewing or detaching in any way, it can be extended into a beautiful FRENCH BEDSTEAD, with Spring Hair Mattress complete. It has the convenience of a Bursau for holding, is easily managed, and it is impossible for it to get out of order. This Sofa Bedstead requires no props, hinges, feet, or ropes to support it when extended, as all other sofa beds and lounges have, which are all very unsafe and liable to get out of repair, but the Bedstead is formed by simply turning out the ends or closing them when the Sofa is wanted. The price is about the same as a lounge. An examination of this novel invention is solicited.
